

1 JOHN TEACHING SUMMARY

January - February 2025

John's letter was written to deal with the issue of dualism in the early church. John writes to explain that 'fellowship' with God and other believers is the best preventative against false doctrine. If we are living the true way and living it in fellowship with other believers it makes it more difficult to be swayed by a clever idea, no matter how well packaged it may be. We are in a similar context today. We, therefore, also have the opportunity to show people a way of life that isn't just the next clever idea.
